

IAMCR–CPT Stockholm 2008 Sessions

1. Internet governance and beyond

Date & Time: Monday 21st July 14.00-15.15

Room: E319

Chair: Hopeton Dunn

1. Internet Governance: Myth and Reality
Luciano Morganti (Vrije Universiteit Brussel); Leo Van Audenhove (Vrije Universiteit Brussel)
2. WSIS/IGF political presence and digital divide issues: seeds of public policies?
Ana Abreu (Universidade Paulista)
3. The new multistakeholderism equation and internet governance
Nanette S. Levinson (American University)
4. Diversity as an Emerging Principle of Internet Governance
Philip M. Napoli (Fordham University)

2. ROUND TABLE: Global Visions - User Generated Content and Professional Futures

Date & Time: Monday 21st July 15.30-16.30

Room: E319

Chair: Robin Mansell

Participants: Binod Agrawal; Olivier Braet; Andrew Calabrese; Bart Cammaerts; Ursula Maier Rabler, Claudia Padovani.

3. Mobile telephony, policy and popular empowerment

Date & Time: Tuesday 22nd July 9.00-10.30

Room: E319

Chair: Gisela Gil-Egui

1. Mobile Telephony as Bridging Technology of Choice among the Poor in Jamaica
Hopeton S. Dunn (University of the West Indies)
2. Income generation and digital mobility: "motoboy" emancipation in Brazil
Gilson Schwartz (University of São Paulo)
3. The Politics of Mobile Phone Technology in Iran
Mehdi Semati (Eastern Illinois University); Fardin Alikhah (Allameh University, Iran)

4. The “Wonder Phone” in the land of miracles
Akiba Cohen (Tel Aviv University); Dafna Lemish (Tel Aviv University)

4. User perspective on social network sites

Date & Time: Tuesday 22nd July 14.00-15.30

Room: E319

Chair: Sophia Kaitatzi-Whitlock

1. Meet you on Facebook: A Symbolic Interactionist Approach to Social Networking
Raul Reis (California State University), Andrew Schrock (California State University)
2. Real life extension in Web-based social networks: The construction of self among student
Elizabeth Prommer (University for Film and Television Potsdam)
3. Characteristics of Elders’ Self-presentation and Activities in Virtual Communities: A Comparative Study in Chinese and American Senior-oriented Websites
Huan Wu (The Chinese University of Hong Kong)
4. A micro-social Digital Divide in a networked society? Empirical Evidence from a longitudinal social network study on consequences of mobile telephone appropriation among teenagers
Thilo von Pape (Université Paul Verlaine)

5. Design-use continuum in media technology

Date & Time: Tuesday 22nd July 16.00-17.30

Room: E319

Chair: Jo Pierson

1. Emerging integration challenges of ‘users’ versus ‘technology’: a multidisciplinary research flow drawing on ‘user-centered design’
Katrien De Moor; Pieter Ugille; Katrien Berte (Ghent University)
2. Maturing Interactivity In Web 2.0: Socio-Political Implications And Policy Challenges
Sophia Kaitatzi-Whitlock (Aristotle University of Thessaloniki)
3. Making the online complementary to the offline: social requirements to foster the ‘sense of community’
Lotte Vermeir; Tim Van Lier; Jo Pierson (Free University Brussels)

6. Intellectual Property Rights and ICT usage

Date & Time: Tuesday 22nd July 17.45-19.00

Room: E319

Chair: Divina Frau-Meigs

1. The Commodity form as the basis of law and the implications for new media and its uses
Kieran Kelly (University of the West of England)
2. Creative Commons Licenses: the Brazilian experience
Davide M. Parrilli (K.U. Leuven)
3. Copyright in China: Implementation Issues in Electronic Media
Tao Liu (Beijing Normal University); Benjamin J. Bates (University of Tennessee)
4. File Sharing and the Use of Peer-to-Peer Networks: More Than Just Free Music?
Michelle Wang (Nanyang Technological University); Chong Pei Won; Germaine Chan; Mark Cenite

7. Digital divide policy and e-gov strategies

Date & Time: Wednesday 23rd July 14.00-15.30

Room: E319

Chair: Bart Cammaerts

1. Emerging Patterns of Inclusion and Exclusion in the Era of E-government: A Case Study of Users of 'Swedish Public Employment Service' on the Internet
Ernesto Abalo, Martin Danielsson, Håkan Johansson and Tobias Olsson (Växjö University)
2. E-Government in Cuba: Between External Contingencies and Internal Determinism
Gisela Gil-Egui (Fairfield University); Rainer Rubira (Universidad de La Habana)
3. Efforts to bridge the Digital Divide: ICTs, Localization and e-Governance in India
Hemant Joshi (Jamia Millia Islamia (Central University))
4. The Internet and the Changing Borderlands: The case of rural broadband use in a small Hispanic Texas town on the U.S. - Mexico border (Paper theme: The Impacts of National or Regional Communications Policies on Minorities)
Joseph Straubhaar; Sharon Stover, Jeremiah Spence, Nobuya Inagaki, Robert Larose, Jennifer Gregg (University of Texas)
5. Defining and Measuring A2K: A Blueprint for an Index of Access to Knowledge
Lea Bishop Shaver (Yale Law School)

8. Media policy making and regulation: country perspectives

Date & Time: Wednesday 23rd July 14.00-15.30

Room: E379

Chair: TBA

1. The “Right to Communicate” and “Communication Rights” in Canada: The case of the Telecommunications Policy Review Panel 2006
Aliaa Dakrouy (Carleton University); William McIver Jr. (National Research Council Canada)
2. Comparing Public Policies for Digital Terrestrial Television: Sweden vs Spain within the framework defined by the European Union
Roberto Suárez Candel (Pompeu Fabra University)
3. Deja Vu amidst Euphoria: Policy Challenges to Satellite Broadcasting over India
Vibodh Parthasarathi (Centre for Culture, Media & Governance)
4. Government - NGO Relationship: A Case Study. Issues about ‘Commercial Break’ in Korea
Kim Kyung Bo (Seoul National University)
5. The possibility of applying universal service policy principle on mobile phone service: In the case of South Korea
Hyunwoo Lee (Seoul National University)

9. Web 2.0, interactivity and user emancipation

Date & Time: Thursday 24th July 14.00-15.30

Room: E319

Chair: Ursula Maier-Rabler

1. News, Interactivity and the Digital Divide
Inger Lindstedt (Malmö University); Bo Reimer (Malmö University)
2. Looking for ‘ordinary people’ in online alternative media: Sourcing and agenda-setting practices in mainstream and citizen news journalism
Dimitra L. Milioni; Paulina Reizi; Joanna Gravani (Aristotle University of Thessaloniki)
3. The weblogs talk—examining the top 100 weblogs in Hong Kong, Taiwan, and China through computer-aided content analysis and network analysis
Chiung-wen (Julia) Hsu (National Chengchi University); Jia Lin (Waggener Edstrom Worldwide)
4. Does Internet make children more vulnerable?— An analysis of children’s online lives and contact with pedophiles
Elisabeth Staksrud (University of Oslo)
5. GAID Initiatives, African Connectivity and the Search for a Global Divide Bridge
Ann Dumas (Pennsylvania State University)

10. Internet regulation: country perspectives

Date & Time: Thursday 24th July 14.00-15.30

Room: E379

Chair: Helena Sousa

1. WSIS, Turkey and The Information Society
Funda Basaran (Ankara University)
2. Small States in the Global Information Society: An Analysis of the Coalition of Finnish Stakeholders in the WSIS Process
Johanna Jaasaari (University of Helsinki)
3. Regulating the Internet in China: Tensions and Controversies
Jinqiu Zhao (Communication University of China)
4. Digital divides and the role of policy and regulation: a qualitative study. The Greek case
Panayiota Tsatsou (LSE)

11. The Digital Still Divides: analytical gaps in policies for digitally-enabled equality (PANEL 2)

Date & Time: Thursday 24th July 16.00-17.30

Room: E319

Chair: Ann Dumas

1. Assessing the Digital Divide
Katharine Sarikakis (University of Leeds)
2. The creative city and the creative worker
Alison Beale (Simon Fraser University)
3. Selling the mobile: the new seniors market
Kim Sawchuk (Concordia University)

12. Commercial and policy strategies in mobile media industry

Date & Time: Thursday 24th July 16.00-17.30

Room: E379

Chair: Paschal Preston

1. One Web, Two Webs or More? The dialogic dynamics behind the establishment of the open mobile web
Indrek Ibrus (London School of Economics)

2. Who pays the bill? In search of a viable business model for mobile digital television in Flanders
Olivier Braet (Vrije Universiteit Brussel); Evens, Tom (Ghent University); De Marez, Lieven (Ghent University); Schuurman, Dimitri (Ghent University), Ballon, Pieter (Vrije Universiteit Brussel) & Van Bruwaene, Kris (Vlaamse Radio- en Televisieomroep)
3. The Social Life of Telecommunication in India: Networked Providence or Collective Conscience?
Zeenath Hasan (Malmö University)
4. Online Advergames and Children's Understanding of Commercial Contents
Soontae An (Kansas State University); Susannah Stern (University of San Diego)

13. Culture, representation and identity via internet

Date & Time: Thursday 24th July 17.45-19.00

Room: E319

Chair: Rosa Mikeal Martey

1. Ubiquitous computing, spatiality, and the construction of identity: Directions for policy response
David J. Phillips (University of Toronto)
2. Dancing Across the Diaspora: Technology and Identity in the Breton Diaspora
Françoise Bourdonnec (Intel Corporation)
3. Digital and Internet Development in European Minority Language Media
Iñaki Zabaleta; Nicolás Xamardo; Arantza Gutierrez; Santi Urrutia; Itxaso Fernandez (University of the Basque Country)
4. Cultural Dynamics, Creative Industries and the Necessary Critique of 'Cognitive Capitalism'
Divina Frau-Meigs (University Paris 3-Sorbonne)

14. Internet control and surveillance

Date & Time: Thursday 24th July 17.45-19.00

Room: E379

Chair: Daya Thussu

1. Controlling access to video on the Internet through code. Towards a political economy of the Internet
Leo Van Audenhove (Vrije Universiteit Brussel); Luciano Morganti (Vrije Universiteit Brussel); John Vanhoucke (Belgacom Telindus)
2. Outside the Centre: Search engines in Japan, China, Germany and South Africa
Elizabeth Van Couvering (London School of Economics)

3. “Introversive publicity” and the new Face(book) of surveillance: Role of social media in the reshaping of contemporary surveillance
Lemi Baruh (Kadir Has University); Levent Soysal
4. Objects of Interest: states, electronic dossier systems, and the intensifying global divide between the powerful and the powerless
Kenneth Neil Farrall (University of Pennsylvania, Annenberg School for Communication)

15. Participation and inclusion via internet

Date & Time: Friday 25th July 9.00-10.30

Room: E319

Chair: Andrew Calabrese

1. Rethinking e-inclusion policies: a new approach for stimulating ICT acceptance
Pieter Verdegem (Ghent University); Pascal Verhoest (Federal Agency for Information and Communication Technology) and Laurence Hautekeete (UGent)
2. Public Participation in the Internet – Lessons from the Environmental Legal Framework?
Rolf H. Weber (University of Zurich)
3. Youth and eParticipation: Social Software and political participation?
Ursula Maier-Rabler (University of Salzburg); Christina Neumayer (University of Salzburg)
4. Digital Divide 2.0 and the Digital Subaltern
Mike Kent (University of Brighton)
5. Access to communications and social exclusion in Europe’s Information Society
Maria Sourbati (University of Brighton)

16. Development and ICT: country perspectives

Date & Time: Friday 25th July 10.45-12.00

Room: E319

Chair: Jo Pierson

1. A critical point of view to ICT development in Iran
Mohammadreza Rasouli (Azad University); Ali Asghar Kia (Allameh -TabaTabai University)
2. Understanding early ICT adoption in urban China: An exploratory study on grassroots technology diffusion and social capital
Raul Roman (InterMedia, Washington DC); Namkee Park (University of Oklahoma); Mark Rhodes (InterMedia, Washington DC)

3. A Comparative Review of Media Globalization in China and Taiwan
Cho-wen Chu (University of Manchester)
4. Internet and print media in Rwanda: opportunities and challenges of online journalism
Dominique Nduhura (National University of Rwanda )
5. Technologising the village agora. How Tele-centres set up in rural areas insert the global in the local Zvenyika Eckson Mugari (Midlands State University)

17. CP&T Business meeting

Date & Time: Thursday 24th July 13.00-14.00

Room: E319

Business meeting at lunch time.